TWO WITNESSES EXAMINED Proffers of Former Associates to Arrange Bond Declined-No

Banker Accused of Embezzlement, Larceny and Fraudulent Breach of Trust.

Counsel Retained. Memphis, Tenn., February 10 .- C.

Memphis, Tenn., February 10.—C. Hunter Raine, whose speculations in the cotton market are held responsible for the wecking of the Mercantile Bank of this city, of which he was president, and who says he lost because. Wall Street "stacked the cards" against him, to-day was formally indicted for the misappropriation of approximately $788,000 of the bank's funds. Embezzlement, larceny and fraudulent breach of trust are charged.

Raine's indictment was announced several hours after the Shelby County grand jury began its probe into the affairs of the Mercantile Bank, which closed its doors yesterday, with a shortage in its accounts said to aggregate more than $1,000,000. The inquiry will be resumed when the grand jury reconvenes on Friday. Additional indictments are anticipated.

News of the indictment was received by the accused banker without comment and as the natural course of events. Raine was placed in a cell at the county fall yesterday, after pleading guilty to a warrant charging embezzlement.
